A compassionate lady, seeing a vegetable huckster beating his horse eruelly, cried out: "Have you no mercy?"
To which the astonished man replied, 'No mem ; I've nothing left now but some greens and cucumbers."

A gentleman, coming home at even-ing, spoke hastily to his little three year old, who was playing very noisily. The little lady dropped her playthings, and retreated indignantly to a corner.

"What is the matter?" asked papa. "Well," said the child, "I've been a good girl all this day, and now you come home and make trouble the first

A literal minded youngster was picked up by a visitor of the family, who, dandling him on his knee, said, "I wish I had this little boy, I think there is morey in him." To which promptly responded the child, "I know there is, for I swallowed a cent when I was at Grandma's the other day."

"Can you tell me where the wicked boyage who fish on Sunday?" asked a sober-looking gentleman of a little chap who had worms and a rod. "Yes; some of 'em goes to the lake. I'll show you the best place at the lake."

"Who's there?" said Jenkins one cold Winter's night, disturbed in his repose by some one knocking at the street door. "A friend," was the answer. "What do you want?" " Want to stay here all night." "Queer taste, ain't it? But stay there, by all means," was the benevolent reply.
